

AAUW Education Award Selection Committee Rules and Selection Guidelines

Program Description

The AAUW Education Award Program will provide a single payment funded education award of $2,000 to a University student who identifies as a woman demonstrating high academic leadership in a STEM field and who has completed at least 2 semesters of study.

Eligibility Requirements for Funding

1. Be a Pennsylvania resident. A student's residency is determined by the postsecondary institution. Proof of residency will be made available to the committee upon request.
2. Not be in default under any state or federal grant, loan, or scholarship program.
3. Submit an official transcript (minimum GPA 3.5).
4. Submit a current resume or curriculum vitae.
5. Proof of Community Service. Students are expected to have performed some community service.
6. Two Letters of Reference. It is expected that reference letters are to be provided by professors, instructors and/or research advisors who know the student academically. One of the two letters may be provided as a result of community service.
7. Essay/Abstract. An essay of some 1,000 words needs to be submitted clearly explaining why the student believes she should receive the award and explain how she would benefit from the award.
Graduate Students: In addition to the essay, graduate students need to provide an abstract of a minimum of 500 words explaining the student's research and how that research would impact society.
8. Copy of course schedule for the semester awarded.
9. Complete and submit the AAUW application form.

Stipulations

1. All students must agree to and meet the policy of the AAUW Education Award Committee.
2. Meeting all of the above conditions does not ensure an award of an AAUW Education Award as awards are given on a competitive basis.
3. Students having a financial need shall be given consideration first.
4. No portion of any award may be applied to past due accounts.
5. The Board of Directors of the Pittsburgh Branch of AAUW Board shall make the final decision for awarding of any award.
